Important instructions:

- Only candidates who are in the list published by DGHS for University level Mop-up counseling will be considered for counseling.
- Only those candidates who fulfill all the eligibility criteria prescribed by the MCC/DCI/University will be considered for admission on merit basis, in the order of NEET UG-2021 All-India-Rank. Mere "Online Registration" by the candidates shall not entitle the candidates to counseling or admission.
- Candidate MUST report to the counseling at least half-an-hour before the scheduled time. Request for change of date and / or time will not be entertained.
- Mop-up counseling will be done as per the inter se merit based on the All India Rank in NEET UG-2021.
- Candidate will lose his/her turn if he/she is not able to submit all of the documents mentioned above and pay the first-year tuition fee right at the time of counseling, even though he/she satisfy all other eligibility criteria and he/she has a higher rank order.
- In case candidate is not able to accept the offer of admission for whatsoever reason (personal or technical or administrative), he/she need to submit a letter of forfeiture, in the prescribed format that will be issued to him/her by University at the venue. The letter of forfeiture once signed and submitted by him/her will be binding and cannot be revoked at a later period of time. The university, then, has the absolute right to offer the admission to another candidate in the order of rank.
- The counseling will stop as and when the number of seats available is filled and hence there is no guarantee that the counseling will extend for the entire day.
- Any vacant seats arising out of subsequent cancellations will be filled from the waitlist candidates.
- There will not be any refund of tuition fees if the candidate withdraws after the admission.
- Any false declaration or submission or misrepresentation or impersonation, if found at any point of time, will make the admission NULL and VOID.
